Dental Whitening Factory

EXCLUSIVE DENTAL BRAND

Dental whitening factory, under QuickWhite, QuickLase, Sparkle Smile and SprayTeeth brands, is dedicated to research, development, manufacture and distribution of dental whitening products and systems. Since 2008, all our products are manufactured entirely in Malaga (Spain).

We are in the process of international expansion and currently looking distributors worldwide.

We currently have a network of distributors in different countries, including: Germany, Belgium, Netherlands, Luxembourg, Morocco, Algeria,...

We strongly support our distributors with the launch of products in new markets so that they can develop brand positioning and gain a competitive advantage in the cosmetic and dental channels.

QuickWhite, launched in the US in 2002 and entirely manufactured in Spain, its our most popular global brand. QuickWhite is aimed at the professional dental market offering both, in-office and home treatments in different formats and concentrations, and introducing the dentist to a wide range of quality products and systems at competitive prices with respect to other companies in the market.

We offer dealers a premium brand of global recognition as well as excellent support and service conditions, training, commercialization adapted to each market, and additional support at fairs and other events.

QuickLase is a range of soft tissue diodes laser manufactured by our partner in the UK. We provide the most innovative technology with an intuitive user interface system that will save time at the dental practice, offering customers satisfaction and above all a treatment without post operative care and less to no pain. This brand is currently marketed by several distributors worldwide. In order to absorb the growing demand we offer dealers a variety of diodes laser as well as marketing, training and support at trade fairs.
